CHRISTMAS WAR NEWS IN 1864

Sherman's Capture of Savannah Was the Joyful Tidings Fifty Years Ago—Norwich Expecting a Large Draft List—Soldiers' Names Remembered at Sunday School Christmas Festival.

The citizens of Norwich fifty years ago this week were anticipating a large draft list when the enrollment was corrected up to the first of the new year and several Norwich boys were expected home with their regiment, the 12th C. V., their time having expired. News of Sherman's victory at Savannah had reached here and another enlisted soldier, Admiral Porter's fleet had returned to Fortress Monroe.

Extracts from the Bulletin files of that week follow: Monday, December 26, 1864.—"Today being the anniversary of the Christmas holiday we shall try to enjoy it and consequently shall issue no paper tomorrow morning."

Sherman has added to the long list of Union victories which swell the record of the dying year. Savannah with one hundred and fifty guns, twenty thousand citizens, thirty-three thousand barrels of cotton, not less than $50,000 in value and eight hundred and thirty soldiers are captured on the 22nd.

The Norwich Fire Insurance Company lost $2,500 and the Thames Company $1,500, by the destruction by fire of the works of the North and Judd Manufacturing Company at New Britain on Friday night the 16th. The losses were all paid the next day.

On Christmas day A. F. Sturtevant assisted all the employees of the Norwich Woolen Company with a fine turkey each.

Commander John Winslow, U. S. N., the hero of the Kearsarge's victory over the Alabama, arrived in town Saturday and is the guest of O. A. Abbott. He will leave town today or tomorrow.

At the provost marshal's Saturday, two volunteers were accepted—one for Norwich, one for Old Lyme, and three substitutes—one for Groton.

Thursday, December 23, 1864.—The Wauregan Hook and Ladder boys made a night of it at their Christmas ball Monday night, and they had reason to be proud. Their ball had not been seen in months.

The First National Bank of Norwich has been made a depository of public money by the treasurer of the United States.

The directors of the Thames National Bank on Tuesday voted to double their capital, thus making it $1,000,000. They have received this privilege to increase from the controller of currency.

The Wauregan Steam Fire Engine Company will have their annual concert and ball at Reed hall on the 12th proximo. The proceeds go to destitute families of deceased soldiers of interest in military affairs just now settling on Wilmington. Our fleet is rounding away at Ft. Fisher, which is

MORE AUTHORITY TO STOP GAMBLING AT FAIRS

Wanted by State Board of Agriculture.—Will Ask the Legislature.

The state board of agriculture intends to ask the general assembly for increased authority over agricultural fairs so as to prevent setting and running of gambling tables. The board of the board that the present authority is not sufficient. An agricultural organization has been organized to permit conduct which is forbidden by law. But there is a way of evading the statute without incurring the penalty of forfeiture of the grant. If the attention of the officials of the fair is directed to the violation by a member of the state board of agriculture, even though it may have been resumed later, the society is given the grant.

It is understood that the state board wants the power to suppress the violation without depending on the activities of the officials of the society under whose auspices the fair is held. This is a matter that has occasioned many warm discussions in the general assembly. The board of agriculture has been heard on the floor of the house. If the state board of agriculture carries out its intention, the measure will be discussed with a great deal of interest.

SINGER GIVEN PAY FOR TWO SUNDAYS

In Suit That Charles H. Case Brought Against Second Congregational Society.

In the case that was recently tried before the common pleas court, in which Charles H. Case sued the Second Congregational society, Judge C. E. Wadsworth made the following decision: The plaintiff, Charles H. Case, did not fully give the verdict, as he meant that it should be given, so that he has directed the clerk of the court to award Mr. Case the sum of $5.25 to correct the record, which now stands for services for the two Sundays he was called on to sing at the church, but gives the verdict for the church on the breach of contract suit that he brought.

In the hurry of leaving court to catch a train on the day he returned he forgot to sign the verdict, but the complete verdict he meant to pronounce.

TAFTVILLE

Ben Hurs Defeated Taftville Basketball Team—Local People Celebrated New Year's Eve at Naturalization Club—Dance at Maennerchor.

The Taftville basketball team went down to defeat Friday afternoon at the hands of the strong Ben Hur basketball team of Hartford, one of the fastest and most skillful teams in the state. The game was a close one, the score of 14 to 11 1-2. The game was fast and exciting from the start until the finish, and was marked with much scientific playing. At spells the home team had the visitors standing on their ear, pulling off some very clever passing; but their baffling passes were not consistent. In the first half the score was about even all through. The Hartford boys came back strong in the final half and managed to ring enough baskets to win the game. Cronin, Harman for the visitors played stellar game and did most of the scoring. The formed scored seven baskets and the latter, Harman, proved to be a bundle of speed, dribbling the ball the length of the hall several times. Captain Murphy led off with a fine shooting baskets, succeeding in ringing six and a foul. Jackson played a strong guard position, mowing and bowlering away at the visitors. In the first half the score was about even all through. The Hartford boys came back strong in the final half and managed to ring enough baskets to win the game. Cronin, Harman for the visitors played stellar game and did most of the scoring. The formed scored seven baskets and the latter, Harman, proved to be a bundle of speed, dribbling the ball the length of the hall several times. Captain Murphy led off with a fine shooting baskets, succeeding in ringing six and a foul. Jackson played a strong guard position, mowing and bowlering away at the visitors.
